

UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO & INTERCULTURE ASSOCIATION

Present

Two Time International Competition Gold Medal Winner

Shanghai Jiao Tong University Symphony Orchestra
& the world acclaimed Conductor, Mr. Cao Peng

Venue: Mendel Hall, Univ. of Chicago

Date: Oct 1, 2009 (Thur)

Time: 7:30PM

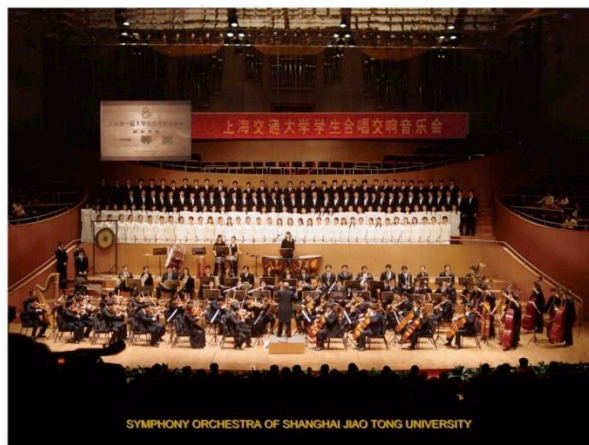

Admission: Free

地点: 芝加哥大学 Mendel Hall

日期: 2009年10月1日(周四)

时间: 晚7:30点

门票: 免费友好演出

Tentative repertoire:

1. Opera: La Forza Del Destino (Verdi)
2. Night of the Torch Festival from 'Symphonic Poem of Yunnan' (Wang Xilin)
3. Violin Concerto "Butterfly Lover"
4. Hungarian Rhapsody No.2 (Franz Liszt)
5. Hunting on the Mountains (Peking opera)
6. Hundreds of Birds Worshipping the Phoenix (Folk music from Shandong province, China)
7. Festival in Bagdad (Rimsky-Korsakov)

Established in 1896, SJTU has a long history of arts education. It has had its own symphonic orchestra since 1920s. Twice the winner of gold medals in the international band competition in 2001 and 2003, the Orchestra is under the direction of the world acclaimed director Cao Peng, former Chief Conductor of Shanghai Symphonic Orchestra before his retirement. The Orchestra has performed in many countries around the world, including Germany, France, Netherlands, Switzerland, Austria, Italy, Japan and New Zealand. This will be their first visit to the United States.

Note: How to get to Mandel Hall?

Street Address: 1131 East 57th Street, Chicago, IL 60637

Entrance: via Reynolds Club. Entrance on west side of building available prior to performances

Contact: Christine Wang, InterCulture Association, Tel: 630-201-3035 & Email: Christine@ica-us.org